Membership Privileges & Responsibilities

Privileges:

- An organization for charitable and educational purposes dedicated to promoting and preserving the heritage of quilting – and, of course, to have fun doing so.
- Meetings are held the first Tuesday of each month at 6 p.m. at Park United Methodist Church.
- Workshops are typically held the third Saturday in the month. In addition, there are special workshops to go along with a program. These workshops benefit all levels from novice through advanced.

Responsibilities

- The membership fee is currently $20 per year.
- Each member is expected to complete at least ONE charity project per year.
- Each member is expected to sell or purchase $15 in raffle quilt tickets per year.
- Each member is expected to donate at least one handmade item to the Park United Church Bazaar in lieu of the Guild paying rent for use of the church.
