Donna's Seasons

Pumpkin spiced anything, sweaters, long walks to see the fall leaves, oh, how they delight. Did you have a chance to think about the December challenge? I have started mine. So, you can try that, too. See you on September 1 for Fr. Greg's talk on harsh soaps for quilts. I have heard Fr. Greg at the Quilt Show 2026; he is an expert on soaps. -- Donna Salter

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Nominating Committee Report
We need one more HPQG member on the nominating committee. If you want to be on this committee, text Donna Salter. We have not met, but we will soon. First Steps . . . To keep members informed about the process for organizing the guild garage sale, there will be information shared the next several months via this newsletter.

Each member wishing to sell items at the garage sale will need to have an identification number to be used on the price tag and attached to the item for sale. Pricing tags with space for member identification number and item price will be provided via PDF for members to print from our Facebook page. A hard copy will be available for those needing it at the September meeting. When you're ready to get a number contact, Sharon Wasteney at your convenience using her email or phone as listed in the guild directory.

Pricing of items will be in whole dollar and 50 cent increments ($1.00, $1.50, $2.00, etc). Think garage sale pricing.

Any items that you wish to donate 100% of the proceeds to the guild will be marked with seller number 99 rather than an individual's number.

Some tips to get started

- Designate a tote for garage sale items. As you clean, reorganize or search through your quiltables, deposit no longer needed items in the tote.
- Acceptable items do not have to be just fabric but should be quilt related-- think books, thread, rulers, template sets, UFO's, anything not used in the last 5 years (make sure all the pieces are there or note what is missing).
- Books sell best at $1-5, fabric sells fast at $3-7.
- Be creative in your packaging, bundle like items.

More garage sale details next month.
