Donna's Seasons

Show/Quilt Sale are coming up in 2027. Hope you will help, if you can. The Folklife Festival is going to be on October 17 and 18, with the set-up on the 16th. We could use HPQG members to set-up and man the booth. Enjoy each day! See you in October.

Remember that the most valuable antiques are dear old friends.

OCTOBER 24 WORKSHOP

QUADRINA--MOONKIN STITCHERY -- SUE WINKING

Beacon United Methodist Church

9 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Materials needed:

10" squares: 18 if making a 36" x 36", 40 for lap size, 48" x 60", 63 if making a twin, 60"
x 72". We will cut them at the workshop, so bring an assortment of rulers with one that is at least 6 1/4" wide and 12" long (others can be smaller), cutting mat and rotary cutter. Pattern is made on point, but I made mine straight and did not cut any blocks in half. You can do it either way. There is a YouTube video available if you want to watch it.

If you are wanting to come and work on another project, that is fine. We usually eat together, so bring your lunch or go out and pick up something.
It's always a fun day to spend time together! Sue

QUILT JOURNALS

If you created a quilt journal, be sure to bring it to the October meeting.
Prizes will be given out for number of quilts recorded.

PHDs

I won't be at the October meeting so for those who declare their PHDs at this meeting, I will catch up with them at the November meeting. November is the final month for declaring your PDS.

COMMUNITY GIVING

Eighteen Christmas stocking were turned in at the September 2026 meeting making the total stockings turned in to date 84. Our goal for the Palmyra Food Pantry is 200 and our deadline to turn in finished stockings is at the December 1 meeting.

Please help us out! We need stockings in addition to the kits we made to meet our 200 goal. If you have children's Christmas fabric in your stash or children's prints we would appreciate your help. If you need a pattern for the stockings, it is saved under "files" on our Facebook page - Christmas Stocking Instructions.pdf and Christmas Stocking Pattern.pdf

It's not too late to turn in your Leaps of Love items. They can still be turned in at the October 6, 2026 meeting. We will make sure they get them before the 2026 Folklife Festival.

Thank you for all the community giving projects turned in so far this year!

Garage Sale Prep #2

Out of sight, out of mind is a phrase that describes a lot of projects in my sewing room. Those need to go, but how should they be priced? How can I make them attractive for buyers? That is a personal decision totally up to you. The garage sale committee will not dictate a price for categories of items (i.e. all magazines priced at 25 cents, books at $1, etc). You decide the price you want; use your experience or desire to be free of the items as you price items.

With fabric bundles think about including thread, buttons, beads if you had that as part of the project plan.

Instead of selling just fat quarters, think about grouping them with a pattern, like a kit.

Pair a magazine with a notion that doesn't stand well by itself.

Sign up with Sharon Wastenev or Rita Lentz for your number to be included on the pricing tag.

VENDOR SHOW/QUILT SALE

APRIL will be here before you know it. I'm excited to add a Quilt Sale to the Fair. There will be a $5 fee to put your quilt in the Sale. At this time I'm thinking we need a limit of 100 to 150 quilts, I'm thinking I have at least 20 to sell lol. Begin looking at your quilts and give me an idea of how many quilts we might acquire.

We will continue to do the opportunity prize baskets. If you have items to donate or want to donate a basket, please feel free to bring items to the meetings.

If you know crafters who might be interested in being a vender, please have them contact me.

I'm excited to keep growing this event. Any help and ideas from members are greatly appreciated. Gina Janes, Vendor Fair Committee 573-231-2059
